ROMISE OF A GREAT PROCESSION-EXERCISES IN

The parade of the Grand Army Posts and veteran passociations, escorted by the First Division of the National Guard, on Monday, in commemoration of the dead heroes of the Wer for the Union, promises to be a great success, and if the skies are propitious will be, perhaps, the largest that has ever taken place in this city on Decoration Day. The preparations, made on an eiaborate scale, are complete, and if the programme is successfully and promptly carried out the occasion will reflect great credit upon Grand Marshal C. H. Lutjens, Adjutant General and Chief-of-Stail D. J. Malion, and the me abers of the Memorial Committee, of which W. A. Copp is chairman, who have been actively at work in planning and executing plans for the outdoor display and the evening exercises at the Acsdemy of Music. A pamphlet, which will be a souvepir of the occasion well worth preserving, has been issued. It gives the order of the procession, the line of march and other interesting details and programmes of the remion at the Academy. It has been arranged that President Cleveland, after witnessing a part of the procession in Brooklyn, will be driven rapidly to the reviewing stand at the Worth Monument and there review the New-York procession, with Governor Hill, General Philip H. Sheridan, General Ja nes M. Schoffeid, Mayor Grace and the president and members of the Board of Aldermen. The Old Guard. Major George W. McLean commanding, will act as an escort to the President and the Governor, and the Guard of Honor will be composed of two members of each Grand Army Post, commanded by Major Samuel A. Russell.

The marching column will consist of fifteen divisions besides the First Division of the National Guard acting as an escort, which will have the right of the line. The First Division of the Grand Army column will consist of the Companies, the artillery battalion and the pioners. Then will follow ten divisions consisting of Grand Army column will consist of the English of the Britanes (Cal Duryes Zonaves). Meagher's Irish Brigade, 5th R THE EVENING.

PLANS FOR REBUILDING ST. GEORGE'S FLATS.

Plans for the rebuilding of the St. George's Fiats at Nos. 223 and 225 hast seventeenth-st., were fied at Fire Headquaftersyseterity by J. C. Cady & Co., the architects, representing the Germania Life Insurance Company. The tail apartment house has remained in a half-rimed state since April 7. 1884, when it was nearly destroyed by flames. It previously had been advertised as a "fire-proof" building, but the fire, which broke out in the daytime, spread through the structure with great rapidity. Several persons were injured, and there were several thrilling rescues. The specifications filed yesterday state that "the building will be occupied, as originally, an apartment house by fourteen families, and the internal arrangements will be reproduced as they were originally, except that from will be substituted for the wooden beams and fire-proof material for the partitions. All the side, rear and central walls from a point about fifty feet from the street line will be taken down three stories and rebuilt so before in the most substantial manner."

The ownership of the property was acquired by the Germania Life Insurance Company recountly. It is estimated that the expense of rebuilding will be about $50,000. Superintendent b'Oeneh, of the Buildings Eureau, has not yet approved the plans. PLANS FOR REBUILDING ST. GEORGE'S FLATS

AMERICAN WHEELMEN'S CONVENTION. Boston, May 28 .- At the business meeting of the Board of Officers of the League of American President, Dr. N. M. Beckwith (present incumbent); vicepresident, T. J. Kirkpatrick, of Springfield, Ohio; treasurer, Sanford Lauson, of Springfield, Mass., Uugene M.

Aaron continues as secretary.

The secretary's report shows a total membership of 8,643, an increase from last year of nearly 64 per cent. Mr. Wells, the acting secretary, reported that The Official Bulletin had a circulation of nearly 9,000 copies, and it is constantly increasing. The financial part of this report was criticised as too vague; and after discussion the report was tabled until after the treasurer's report was read.

The Chairman of the Racing Board stated in his report that the beard had declared twenty-eight men to be professionals for having violated the amateur rule. This report was discussed and finally approved.

YALE AND COLUMBIA DISAPPOINTED.

Some hopes were entertained until last night that the Yale and Columbia University crows would be permitted to take part in the Harlem Spring regatta on Decoration Day. The entries for the eight-oared race closed on May 21, the New-York Athlete Club, the University of Pennsylvania and the Columbia Freshmen being the only other competitors. On Thursday, after Yale's professional English trainer, Chamey, had been discharged and "Bob" Cook had gained control of the crew again, a dispatch was sent to Alexander E. Simonds, one of the directors, asking if leave could be obtained from the University of Pennsylvania crew to enter the eight-oared race. Mr. Simonds at once telegraphed to Philadelphia asking the same privilege for both the Yale and Columbia crews. The Pennsylvania men readily consented. The Columbia Freshmen, of course, yielded to the wishes of the boat club director. Only the crew of the New-York Athletle Club remained to be won over. They refused blankly last night, however, and the Yale-Columbia plan had to be given up. The three crews which entered before last Friday will fight it through alone. that the Yale and Columbia University crews would be
